

Lunchtime Talk: Life as a Lawyer in a Global Law Firm

Brief Synopsis: If you've had burning questions as to what life as an attorney in a global law firm is like, this is your opportunity to find out. NUS Law alumna Jacqueline Chan is a partner in a global law firm and is a 17-year veteran of the firm. If you're interested in what international firms look for in associates, or what it's like to work in a cross-border transactional practice, come by for a listen and a chat.

Event Details

Date:	22 February 2019, Friday
Time:	1230H to 1400H (Please do not be late) Lunch will be provided.
Venue:	Blk B, 4 th Level, Seminar Room 4-4 National University of Singapore, Faculty of Law
Registration:	https://tinyurl.com/y3nuo683

SPEAKER

Jacqueline Chan
Partner, Milbank

Jacqueline Chan is a partner in Milbank's Singapore office who regularly represents many of the largest private equity and sovereign wealth funds, corporations, investment banks and financial institutions on high-value complicated international M&A, acquisition finance, and private equity transactions across the globe. She also has significant experience in international debt restructurings and has advised on some of the most complex international transactions in Asia and elsewhere. Jacqueline is consistently recognized by Chambers, IFLR, Euromoney, Legal 500 and Best Lawyers as a leading lawyer in the fields of M&A, Banking and Finance, and Restructuring, and the transactions she leads regularly receive "Deal of the Year" awards from leading industry publications.