CBFL SEMINAR SERIES

BLOCKCHAIN TECHNOLOGY: KEY LEGAL AND REGULATORY DEVELOPMENTS

By Mr Usman Sheikh
Partner, Gowling WLG’s Toronto Office

15 Nov 2018 (Thursday)
5.00pm – 6.30pm (Registration starts at 4.30pm)
NUS Law (Bukit Timah Campus)
Block B Level 4, Seminar Room SR4-1

ABOUT THE EVENT
This seminar will consider key legal and regulatory developments in the area of blockchain technology. The talk will begin with a brief overview of the nature of blockchain technology, followed by practical applications that have been, or are in the process of being, operationalized around the world (in the area of capital markets, payments, real estate and others). This will be followed by a discussion of the regulatory response by several notable jurisdictions around the world and also the significant legal issues and challenges that are raised by this highly novel technology. The aim will be to give participants an overview of the workings of blockchain technology, how and why it is challenging fundamental legal concepts and regulatory frameworks, and also the status of the legal jurisprudence.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND
Banking lawyers, in-house bank counsel, policymakers

ABOUT THE CENTRE FOR BANKING & FINANCE LAW
The Centre for Banking & Finance Law (CBFL) at the Faculty of Law, National University of Singapore, seeks to generate scholarship and promote thinking about the vibrancy, robustness and soundness of the banking sector, capital markets and other financial services. Through the research our scholars undertake and the events we organise, we seek to create and share knowledge, to engage stakeholders in an exchange of ideas, and to enhance the appreciation of legal and regulatory issues. We aim to bring greater theoretical and analytical clarity to these issues, to examine their policy impact, and to be a catalyst for ideas on how to improve banking and financial systems at the national, regional and global levels.
